DIRECTOR FOR BOYS WORK IN CITY ENGAGEDRotarians Bring Experienced Worker to Organize Boys
of CityTO AID ALL THE BOYS
Cooperation of Every Agency in City Will Be Sought

Plans which have been carefully developed by the Rotary club for the promotion of boys' welfare in the city were consummated today in the announcement that an experienced director of boys' activities has been engaged.

The director, who is J. J. MacLeod, has wide experience in this work, and members of the Rotary club feel satisfied that they have obtained the best man in the Northwest to inaugurate an organized boys' movement in Bismarck.

Mr. MacLeod will come to Bismarck not later than April 25, and with him his family, consisting of a wife and two daughters, one 11 and one 13 years of age. Mr. MacLeod comes from Canada, where he has been supervising a large district for a men's and boys' organization.

To Seek Co-operation.

In Bismarck Mr. MacLeod will seek the co-operation of every agency in the city and men and women, without any distinction or discrimination, in promoting the activities of the Boy Scouts and of other boys' organizations and individuals. He will be expected to organize boys' play, promote their welfare in every way, and direct their energies into the right channels. The Rotarians feel that Mr. MacLeod will enter Bismarck under especially favorable circumstances, because his work cannot conflict with that of any other agency.

Mr. MacLeod addressed the Rotarians at their weekly luncheon Wednesday and also talked to high school boys. Local Rotarians while scouring the Northwest for a man learned that Mr. MacLeod had had several flattering offers from organizations, which necessitated traveling. He was secured for Bismarck because he said that he wished to live in a city of this size, where he might come in direct contact with the boys and see the result of his work.

Was In Cuba.

Eighteen years ago Mr. MacLeod went to Havana, Cuba, as the first athletic director brought to that country by an organization promoting the welfare of men and boys.

In announcing the employment of Mr. MacLeod, President Fred L. Conklin, of the Rotary club, explained that while the Rotary club favored the movement to engage a director of boys' work it is hoped that Mr. MacLeod will receive the co-operation of all organizations in the city interested in the welfare of boys. Mr. MacLeod, he said, would be a representative of the community at large and as such would have the entire community as his field and feel responsible to all of the people in the community.

REFUSE WAGE
CUT PERMISSION

CHICAGO, April 7.—Permission to make provisional reduction of unskilled labor on the New York Central railroad was denied by the railroad labor board here today. The railroad recently requested permission to put cuts of from 17 to 31 per cent in effect April 1.

MARMARTH MAY HAVE LANDING

MARMARTH, N. D., April 7.—Marmarth may be designated as one of a number of landing places on the proposed aerial route from Seattle to Chicago, which will follow the Yellowstone trail as the result of consideration of the project at the recent meeting held in Miles City, Mont.

Landing fields are marked by a huge white circle. With the installation of telephone connections between Marmarth and a landing area near town, a class "A" field is said to be attainable.

A pathfinder plane will fly over the proposed route this summer and make suitable landing places as a tentative guide to permanent designation.

ALL WOMEN ON BOARD

Grafton, N. D., April 7.—When voters from the First ward entered the court room Monday to cast their ballots they were puzzled at the feminine atmosphere. Gathered about the table were five women, one doing a bit of hand sewing. There wasn't a man in sight. Then came understanding. The quintette was the regularly appointed, legally qualified and acting election board for the First ward. Mrs. H. H. Mott was inspector. Mrs. Thomas Miller and Mrs. John Larson judges. Mrs. J. R. Stewart and Miss Maud Miller clerks.

LITTLE PEARL LOSES OUT
AS WHITE HOUSE BABY

By Newspaper Enterprise.

CHICAGO, April 7.—Little Pearl Harding will not, after all, be "the White House baby."

The police have brought a sudden stop to the climb of the Chicago Hardings, who became celebrities through a bogus relationship with the president.

"Cousin Everett," pearl's brother, according to Dr. W. J. Hickson of the municipal psychopathic hospital, is mentally unsound and his claims to relationship to President Harding are based on a delusion.

Meanwhile, so convincing has been "Cousin Everett's" story and so well has he profited by the national advertising, that the discovery of his imposture is a shock to:

The Hamilton Club of Chicago, which urged a life membership on Everett and gave him "the keys to the clubhouse."

The Pennsylvania Railroad, which furnished the Hardings a private car to and from Washington and accepted a worthless check for $1,999.99 in payment.

Twenty residents of Chicago who have been watching the mails for the federal appointments promised them by Cousin Everett.

William L. Koshne, a fashionable photographer, who gave elaborate settings to Pearl and Everett and their parents.

Mayor Thompson, who was harassed by friendly overtures.

President Harding himself, who, though he had no recollection of "Cousin Everett," nevertheless accepted his claims and invited him and his immediate family to the inauguration and met him cordially.

Pearl's picture was spread broadcast as the little girl who would spend the next four years at the White House, keeping the childless Hardings from loneliness.

President Harding brought about the downfall of Everett. After he learned that the check tendered the railroad company was worthless, he asked the secret service to investigate "Cousin Everett's" claims to relationship.

They reported the claims false and found Everett had a police record as a forger.

Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim Harding, Everett's parents, and Pearl are said by the police to have been the dupes of Everett.

MOTT TO HAVE BASEBALL NINE

MOTT, N. D., April 7.—A meeting was held last night at the Masonic hall for the purpose of organizing a baseball team. The American Legion post here will take the management of the team. About 15 players have been checked up here from which a strong nine can be picked.

WILL RAISE FUNDS.

Devils Lake, N. D., April 7.—Devils Lake business and professional men will be solicited next week for funds to maintain a winning baseball team here this summer.

HAIR-CUT QUIETS SEA.

New York, April 7.—Ole Bull skinner of the liner Bergenstorf, is here with a bald pate. That's because he and ship officers had their hair cut to quiet the stormy seas. In regard to an old Viking superstition it worked, Ole says.

DESCRIBES 11
NEGRO MURDERS
ON PLANTATIONNegro Boss Says That Fear
Prompted Carrying Out of Slaying Order

Covington, Ga., April 7.—John S. Williams, plantation owner, on trial for the murder of one of 11 negro farm hands, alleged to have been killed through fear of exposure of peonage conditions on his farm, took the stand in his own behalf.

"Like most farmers," he said, "I have bonded out Negroes and worked them," adding that "most Georgia farmers were technically guilty of peonage under definition of that term given him by federal agents."

Covington, Ga., April 7.—Fear for his own life was the motive that prompted Clyde Manning, Negro farm hand boss, to half kill 11 Negro hands employed on the Jasper county plantation of John S. Williams, the negro told the jury in the trial of Williams in Newton county superior court here today. He said he did not want to help kill them but was afraid to disobey Williams who, he declared, was trying to do away with the Negroes for fear they might testify regarding alleged peonage conditions on the Williams farm.

The Negroes met death shortly after federal authorities started an investigation of alleged peonage on the farm six of them, according to Manning, being chained to rocks and thrown alive into rivers, and five knocked on the head or shot and buried on the premises.

Throughout a hour of cross examination, Manning, who was indicted tonight, had been brought to bear on him to make him tell the story.

Four More Witnesses.

The state put on four other witnesses besides Manning two federal agents, Clyde Freeman, a Negro farm hand, and a Negro woman cook, and was expected to conclude its case tomorrow. The defense indicated it would conclude its testimony in about one day and that the case should go to the jury Saturday.

Manning was the state's chief witness. He is unable to read or write, he said, and about 29 years old but does not know where he was born.

Search over the entire Northwest now is being made for Harold Svendsgaard, 17-year-old Bismarck boy, who disappeared on February 1.

No trace or word of the missing boy has yet been found. His family, extending the search, plans to send him a picture to newspapers and officers in many cities in the hope that he might be recognized or might see the picture himself and respond.

Harold disappeared after going to a grocery store in the city on an errand. The only trace of the manner of his leaving the city was that a boy answering his description was walking east from Bismarck, and when near the penitentiary was picked up by a passing autoist who took him to McKenzie. Where he went from there is a mystery. He had but $4 or $5 in his pockets at the time.

Give a Social.

The Svendsgaard's formerly lived in Bowdon, Wells county. They were surprised this week to receive word that a supper and dance was given by friends in Bowdon to raise funds to aid in the search for the boy. The receipts totaled $65, which were forwarded to the Svendsgaard's here.

A Model Boy.

Harold Svendsgaard was a musician of ability, and in the search effort has been made to find if he joined any musical clubs in other cities. He also was interested in Boy Scout work, basketball and was an excellent student. It is said he had not passed Sunday school but once or twice in five years. His relatives are unable to account for his sudden disappearance, unless he may have been worried from overstudy.

ONLY $50 IN STATE BANK

Rugby, N. D., April 7.—Withdrawal of $29,000 worth of sinking funds of Pierce county from the Bank of North Dakota, of which $20,000 was used to retire county bonds and the remainder deposited in local banks, leaves the county with only $50 in the state bank which is on a checking account. The county also has $50 in claims against the Bank of North Dakota.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Organization of a veterans' service administration, consolidating existing governmental bureaus having to do with treatment of disabled service men, is recommended in a report submitted today to President Harding by Chas. G. Dawes of Chicago, chairman of the special committee investigating soldier relief problems.

RAISE FUNDS FOR BASEBALL

LaMoure, N. D., April 7.—The four-act comedy "Assisted by Slade," brought a sum of $160 for the prospective baseball team to represent LaMoure this year. The play will also be presented at Verona and Marion, and the receipts turned in towards the local ball club.

RUM RUNNER NOT SO DANGEROUS—
UNLESS YOU'RE ONE YOURSELF

The whiskey runner is not such a dangerous man for an officer to meet on the road as many people imagine, according to F. L. Watkins, state enforcement officer.

"These men may have $3,000 or $4,000 invested in an automobile and $2,000 or $3,000 in whiskey," he said, "and they are not looking for a trip to the penitentiary especially if there is more than one officer in a party."

This doesn't mean that a whiskey runner is a particularly pleasant man to meet on the road, however, according to Watkins. Many of them come from far off and have records which stamp them as dangerous men.

They seem to concentrate on fellow rum runners, however. "High Jack" is the name applied to the robbery of one rum runner by another. A short time ago, near the Canadian border, is said, several men drove up to an alleged whiskey runner whose car had broken down, claimed they were federal officers and confiscated his automobile.

Watkins and another officer will work exclusively in the Minot territory. Minot itself is said to be rather quiet now, with visible evidences of whiskey runners missing.

Station

CHICAGO, April 7.—Currency and negotiable securities amounting to between $500,000 and $750,000 are believed to have been secured by four bandits who robbed a government mail truck at the Dearborn street station here yesterday.

The registered mail pouch believed to have contained the loot was found by police this morning.

Various conflicting stories are told of the hold-up by eye-witnesses but all agree that the robbery consumed not more than a minute and a half.

A "Movie" Robbery.

Scores of pedestrians gazed at what they believed to be a "movie" robbery and 50 railway and postal employees obligingly stood around with their hands in the air, while five armed bandits stole the mail and escaped in an automobile.

Homeward bound crowds filled the station and streets when the automobile drew up beside the loading platform late in the afternoon. A mail truck was unloading its contents which were to be placed aboard the Monon train known as the Hoosier Limited. Four men leaped out of the machine and one of them shouted: "Stick up your hands, everybody."

More than 50 railway and postal employees who were around the truck complied in the belief that a motion picture scene was being taken. Three sacks of mail, one a registered pouch, were thrown into the machine when one of the bandits became alarmed at seeing a policeman and fired a shot at him. All of the robbers then leaped into the machine and sped away at top speed pursued by five bullets fired at them by the policeman.

Condition Reported to Be Hundred Per Cent

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Forecast of a winter wheat crop of about 621,000,000 bushels was made today by the department of agriculture, basing its estimate on the condition of the crop April 1, which was 91 per cent of normal.

There was an increase of 3.1 points in the condition from December 1, last, to April 1, this year, compared with an average decline of 4.8 points between those dates in the last ten years.

The production forecast is based upon average production last fall, with the assumption of average harmful influences on the crop to harvest. Production of rye was forecast as 60,386,000 from a condition of 90.3 per cent of normal.

Winter wheat conditions April 1 last year was 75.6 per cent of normal. Rye conditions a year ago were 86.6 per cent of normal.

Winter wheat conditions by principal producing states was: Pennsylvania, 97; Ohio, 87; Indiana, 83; Illinois, 90; Michigan, 90; Missouri, 93; Nebraska, 83; Kansas, 83; Texas, 88; Washington, 100.

ELLWELL MURDER
MAY BE SOLVED
BY CONFESSION

Buffalo, N. Y., April 7.—Although Roy Harris, alias G. E. B. Leonard, had not deviated from the original story of his alleged part in the murder last June of Joseph B. Ellwell, wealthy New York club man, the Buffalo police today pointed to certain discrepancies between his signed confession and known facts of the murder. He confessed last night according to police.

MAY USE ANTI-TRUST LAW

Daugherty Points Out It Is a Weapon Against Profiteers

Washington, April 7.—A general warning to business that the department of justice will countenance no violations of the law was sounded today by Attorney General Daugherty.

The country, Mr. Daugherty said, should "take notice of new day and a new way," and that those who have been guilty of illegal practices should not "close their eyes." His statement, he added, was a "modest but emphatic warning to those for whom it was intended and could be regarded as an opportunity for any of those who should mend their ways to do so."

Points to Sherman Law.

The attorney general said the department of justice did not intend to harass business in any way but that it did intend to enforce the law. He pointed out that while the profiteering section of the Lever act had been declared unconstitutional the department still could proceed under the Sherman anti-trust law.

Mr. Daugherty was discussing specifically the situation in the building materials industry which he declared reports to the department showed to be "intolerable." He said the department of justice would ask for more aid from the outside than it had received heretofore and that lawyers representing firms should regard themselves as agents of the department of justice in upholding law.

Indictments Returned.

The attorney general announced that it is the purpose of investigating conditions in the building materials trade when ever an inquiry was warranted. Indictments already have been returned in New York and Chicago, he said, and complaints have come from other cities.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Investigation of illegal practices in the building material trade is to be undertaken at once in all parts of the country where necessary, Attorney General Daugherty announced.

Reports from some sections of the country are that the building material situation is "intolerable," Mr. Daugherty said, and the department of justice desires to contribute in any way it can to improving it.

BENNY KAUFF IS BANISHED

CHICAGO, April 7.—Benny Kauff, star outfielder of the New York Yankees, today was declared ineligible to play in organized baseball by Commissioner Landis because of the indictment returned against him in New York charging him with the theft of an automobile.

Leaders of the miners' union who conferred with Prime Minister Lloyd George this morning refused to order engines and pump men in mines affected by the coal strike to resume work. They said they would resume work only after negotiations with the mine owners.

As a result of this refusal the miners and their employers will not meet today. The conference lasted upwards of two hours.

MERCER TO HAVE CONTEST

Zap, N. D., April 7.—The farm bureau and the county commissioners of Mercer county, recognizing the value of good corn for the county, have planned a corn contest with the aim of increasing the corn acreage and bettering the yields and variety, according to County Agent Poe.

"There are several ways this can be done," said Mr. Poe, "but the most feasible and successful way has been found in other counties to the through a corn contest."

"We believe it wise to ask the businessmen for donations to give prizes for the best 20 acres of corn, on the following basis:

Cleanest field, 25 per cent
Best 10 ears
County fair, 25 per cent
Largest yield 25 per cent
Best report 25 per cent
Total 100 per cent

"In some of the other county contests banks have given $25 apiece as cash prizes. Other businessmen have given $20 in trade which appeals in most businesses."

We recommend that the prizes be raised by bankers as follows:

SCOT MINES BOMBED

Efforts Made to Prevent Giving Protection to Mines From Flooding

London, April 7.—(By the Associated Press)—The National Union of Railway Men today unanimously decided to support the coal miners in their strike.

The executive body of the railway men's union decided to consult immediately with the transport workers organization for the purpose of taking the most effective and immediate steps to assist the miners.

Fear Industrial Stagnation

London, April 7.—(By the Associated Press)—With the breakdown of the conference between the coal owners and striking miners concerning the wage dispute this morning and the almost immediate decision of the rail men to join the transport workers and the miners of Great Britain was trembling on the edge of an industrial precipice.

The prime minister, Mr. Lloyd George, who had attempted mediation in the house of commons at mid-afternoon, made the significant statement, that the issue raised was much wider than that of wages. This interpreted generally as meaning that the government and the miners, to all intents and purposes, were again at grips over the old question of nationalization of the mines.

A Ray of Hope.

Some ray of hope appeared in the subsequent debate when J. R. Clynes, chairman of the parliamentary labor party, in the house of commons at mid-afternoon, made the significant statement, that the issue raised was much wider than that of wages. This interpreted generally as meaning that the government and the miners, to all intents and purposes, were again at grips over the old question of nationalization of the mines.

One of the members of the miners' executive body, Samuel Finney, declared the miners were willing to negotiate on this basis.

Army and Navy Ready.

Meanwhile, the representatives of the railway men, the transport workers and the miners were conferring to decide what, if any, action should be taken to enforce the miners' demands. Both the railway and transport men have stated their intention to give the miners full support but no information was forthcoming as to whether this would mean a nationwide strike.

The government, on the other hand, continued its preparation to meet any emergency with the employment of all the facilities of the army and the navy.

CONFERENCE BREAKS UP

LONDON, April 7.—(By the Associated Press)—A complete breakdown of the conference between representatives of the miners, the owners and the government with a view to settling the coal strike was announced in the house of commons by Premier Lloyd George this afternoon.

Leaders of the miners' union who conferred with Prime Minister Lloyd George this morning refused to order engines and pump men in mines affected by the coal strike to resume work. They said they would resume work only after negotiations with the mine owners.

As a result of this refusal the miners and their employers will not meet today. The conference lasted upwards of two hours.

HOLD NAVY MEN READY

QUEENSTOWN, Ireland, April 7.—Naval units here and at other home ports have been instructed as a result of the strike of British miners to hold themselves in readiness for emergency.

Shore leaves having been curtailed, even officers being required to return to their ships by 8:30 o'clock in the evening.

Naval officers view the situation as being filled with the gravest possibilities.

The question of shifting large numbers of the Crown forces in Ireland to England has been fully considered, it is understood, and if such steps should be taken it is stated the forces transferred there would probably include many auxiliary regarded as especially qualified to deal with the elements seeking to stir up trouble in Ireland.

BOMB THROWN.

London, April 7.—Reports from many mining centers say that the strikers were adopting a more aggressive attitude to make volunteers stop keeping the collieries free from water. In numerous instances force was used. At Borrowdowns, Scotland, miners today threw bombs at a pit head to intimidate volunteer workers in the mines. No material damage was done.

DENMARK POST OFFERED GRONNA BY PRESIDENT?

Reported Former Senator Considers Diplomatic Position

Former United States Senator A. J. Gronna has been offered the appointment as U. S. Minister to Denmark, according to Washington dispatches. Mr. Gronna is said to have the offer under consideration.

The report came somewhat as a surprise as it was not known that the former senator had any diplomatic aspirations or would consider a voluntary offer.

The appointment as minister to Denmark is one of the choice positions in the Scandinavian countries. The position carries a salary of $10,000 a year.

THOMPSON WINS IN CLOSE FIGHT ON CITY COMMISSION

From Casselton to become a clerk for F. C. Remington. In 1879 his parents migrated from Fountain City, Wisconsin, to Cass county. Mr. Lenhart has been prominent in lodge, civic and public affairs in the city for years.

A. W. Lucas, president of the city commission, was about as happy as the successful candidates today, for Mr. Lucas will step out of office after 12 years of arduous service on the commission, and he refused earnest petitions of his friends to stand for reelection.

See Bismarck Ahead.

During the time that Mayor Lucas was in office the city has taken a big jump forward in public improvements until today it is ahead of every city in the state.

Among the improvements made was a system of sidewalks and crosswalks, a sanitary sewer system, a surface sewer system, fourteen miles of paving, the building of a city hall and the erection of the municipal auditorium.

"Bismarck," said Mayor Lucas today, "is ahead of every city of its size in the country. All of the many members of the city government deserve great credit for the work they have done."

Served Eight Years.

Chris Bertsch, who quits the commission after eight years service, has kept Bismarck free of crime during the last four years when he has been commissioner of fire and police and during any other time period in her history. During his first four years as commissioner Mr. Bertsch was commissioner of waters and sewers.

C. W. Cashman, elected police magistrate, a position now held by B. F. Flanagan by appointment, said today: "I wish to thank my friends and I hope that my conduct in office will not be such that they will regret they supported me."

The race for police magistrate was in doubt until the last precinct was in, when Mr. Cashman forged ahead of Anton Beer.

The appointments to be made by the new administration, including fire and police department appointments, are made as of May 1.

Fargo, April 6.—H. W. Geary was elected president of the Fargo city commission yesterday over his opponent, Dr. J. B. Aylen, by 1,393 votes. Mr. Geary received 3,197 votes and his opponent 1,804. August Hanson and Alex Bruce will succeed J. J. Jordan and O. M. Strate as members of the city commission, the latter men losing in their race for re-election. Leigh J. Monson was re-elected police magistrate. The total vote cast was only slightly more than that cast in the fall election.

JAMESTOWN ELECTION.

Jamestown, N. D., April 6.—The city election here was devoid of excitement, and only 504 votes were cast.

J. F. Henderson was elected member of the park board; R. W. Filtman, alderman First ward; James C. Murphy alderman Second ward; S. W. B. Still, alderman Third ward; Prof. W. B. Thomas, alderman Fourth ward.

W. M. SMART ELECTED

MINOT, April 6.—M. W. Smart, former publisher of the Daily News, Captain Otto Cron, who served overseas, and Bratsburg were elected to the positions on the city commission. Mr. Smart is president of the new commission and the others are commissioners.

An energetic campaign was made against the Shaw machine on the grounds of mismanagement, especially in the handling of a local bond issue. Shaw, it will be remembered, was once removed from office and later re-elected. Smart defeated him by sixteen votes.

WILLISTON BANK CLOSES DOORS

The Williston State Bank, of Williston, has closed its doors, according to information received at the office of the state bank examiner.

Simon Westby is president of the bank, which had $25,000 capital and $250,000 deposits.

HAPPIEST "LAME DUCK" AT CAPITOL IS GEN. SHERWOOD, REPORTER AT 85

ISAC R. SHERWOOD
85 AND NEVER USES "OPICS"

Spring Poetry and Keen Comment in His Letters to Old Constituents

By H. E. R. Briggs.

Washington, April 6.—The November blizzard of ballots snowed up many a doughty Democrat beyond revival in this spring's sunshine.

But not General Isaac R. Sherwood—late congressman from Toledo, Ohio, and now a bustling young newspaper correspondent for the News-Bee.

He's too sturdy an oak for the tempest to uproot. The new session finds him right here at the old stand, watching with keen blue eyes the legislative mill a-grinding.

At 85 he turns from one job to another as confidently as any boy. He led his ticket in November, but the ticket didn't do as well, so a Republican now occupies his seat.

That is a mere detail to this grizzled though sprightly veteran of Civil war battles and fierce political fray.

He came to Congress first 48 years ago—the same year Uncle Joe Cannon arrived. He has been here more intermittently than Uncle Joe, first as a Republican and later as a Democrat.

More burial in a political landslide is not going to keep him away now. He turns to newspaper work because, in the interests of public service, he has been writer, editor and publisher of newspaper and other periodicals.

Speaking of Cannon a few years ago when the House honored that stalwart's 40 years in the harness, General Sherwood said something that applies equally to himself:

"We will concede that Uncle Joe has passed the period of adolescence and that he has reached the age of discretion. But he has not reached the acme of his intellectual development. When he delivers his masterpiece in this chamber, or in a larger forum, I hope I may be present with ears erect to hear or eyes alert to read."

And he will be, for General Sherwood's eyes and ears are keen.

He is the only Washington newspaper correspondent with a special office in the very Capitol itself. His associates in the House have seen to that.

U. S. SENDS NEW NOTES SOUNDING MANDANTE VIEW

Japan, Great Britain, France and Italy Hear from American Government

WASHINGTON, April 6.—New notes on the subject of mandates have been sent by the American government to the governments of Japan, Great Britain, France and Italy. The notes are understood to be very similar but the occasion for preparing them is said to be the receipt of Japan's reply to the original American note protesting against Japanese mandates over the former German islands in the Pacific north of the equator.

State department officials refused to discuss the documents but it is understood they are broad enough to cover all American rights growing out of the world war.

The notes form a part of the series begun by Secretary Colby and in which the United States insisted on its full rights as one of the allied and associated powers and also the right to pass finally on all mandates before their adoption.

LEMKE IN EAST; GOVERNOR GOES TO CONFERENCE

Attends Grain Men's Meeting in Chicago

Speculation was rife today among those watching efforts of Nonpartisan league officials to dispose of bonds in the east as to whether or not the decision of the supreme court on the status of the Bank of North Dakota would affect the bond sale efforts in any way.

Attorney General William Lemke is now in the east endeavoring to dispose of bonds and, according to league newspapers, has sent back encouraging reports. Governor Lynn J. Fraser is in Chicago, presumably to attend a grain men's conference and to discuss the proposed bond sales.

SEAL HERRICK APPOINTMENT AS AMBASSADOR

Will Resume Position as French Envoy He Held in 1914

WASHINGTON, April 6. (By Associated Press).—Myron T. Herrick has decided to accept appointment as American ambassador to France, a post he filled under President Taft and which he occupied at the beginning of the world war. Mr. Herrick's formal nomination will be made soon and he will go to France in the early summer.

A Straight Shooter Read Carefully

That means now days a person who is straight and honest in business transactions. For years this Real Estate agency has been a straight shooter. We have sold hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of Real Estate and 99% of our buyers are our friends, showing plainly that we never over price property.

I was going to say that I am offering a modern house, eleven rooms and bath, east front, beautiful hard maple floors, hot water heat, nice trees, (remember you will be basking in the sun shine shortly) large garage, and agreeable surroundings. This property could not be replaced for $10,000. But for quick sale will sell for about one half, $2000 cash, balance on good terms. This is a bargain.

FLASHER WILL RAISE POTATOES FOR SOUTHLAND

Holstein Breeders' Circuit in Morton County Adds New Crop to Rotation

The members of the Flasher Holstein Breeders circuit has decided to add the raising of certified Early Ohio potatoes to their crop scheme.

George H. Isle, county agent, has been instructed to purchase the seed. This crop will be sold through a co-operative marketing system to southern potato growers, who prefer northern-grown seed as it has more stamina and is more productive.

Mr. Isle believes that potatoes should prove valuable in Morton county, by providing a cultivated crop which will help keep the land clean of weeds and conserve the moisture for the grain crops which follow.

A meeting of Morton county farmers interested in potato production has been called for Saturday afternoon at the Commercial club and it is possible that at that time plans will be made to greatly extend the planting of the crop in all parts of the county.

The buildings at Mandan of a weather-proof storage house has been suggested.

FAMILY WIPED OUT IN WORLD WAR, SAYS NIECE

Joe Katz after Six Years Without Letters Receive News of Deaths

Joe Katz received word today from a niece in Poland that three brothers and two sisters were killed during the world war.

Mr. Katz has been trying for six years to get in communication with some of his relatives in Poland, but today message of death was the first one which he has received.

His niece said that she did not know whether they had been shot or starved to death.

They lived about 150 miles west of Warsaw in a small city in which the Russians and the Germans clashed 16 times during the war.

The writer declared that the brothers and sisters had been driven out of their homes and everything which they had had been taken. They were all well to do.

NEW SETTLERS FOR SLOPE TO BE DISCUSSED

Business Men of City to Hear Association Plans Outlined at Banquet

RUNEY EXPLAINS AIMS

Man Engaged to Represent Real Estate Men Tells What He Hopes to Do

"Immigrants for the Missouri Slope" will be the subject of the Open Forum dinner to be held at the Grand Pacific hotel Friday night at 6:30 P. M. under the auspices of the Commercial club.

A general invitation to business men to attend is extended by C. L. Young, president of the club.

The Bismarck Immigration Association, formed by realty men, will make its debut at the dinner. This association already has engaged W. E. Runey, formerly connected with the state immigration department, to act as field agent in other states. Mr. Runey today made the following statement relative to his work:

"The business men of Bismarck and vicinity have organized what is known as the Bismarck Immigration Association, its object being to bring settlers into Burleigh county and vicinity.

Are Optimists.
"These men are optimists. They have the interest of Burleigh county at heart, and while this is not (properly speaking) a money-making scheme, they are willing to put their money into it and are sending me out to carry on the work."

"These men have financed the proposition and want the co-operation of every man and woman in Burleigh county to do all they possibly can to boost for this association and make this work a success."

"Dr. Worst has been kind and courteous enough to grant us the use of Burleigh county films No. 1 and 2 in connection with other films to carry on this work, and I assure you they will be used to the greatest advantage possible, and wish you to feel that the money which our county commissioners have put into these films has not been spent in vain."

To Leave April 10.

"I expect to leave for South Dakota about April 10, and wish to feel that I am taking with me the best wishes and good will of every one in this county, every town and city, the Commercial clubs, and every other organization, and promise you that I will put forth every effort on my part, to make this work successful, giving you the best there is in me, and the same hard earnest work which I put in during the last 18 months for the Immigration Department will be done for Burleigh county instead of for the state as a whole."

"Now friends this is your work as well as mine, and we wish you to feel that if you have any suggestions to offer or any encouragement to give, kindly call on our secretary, Mr. Price Owen, and it will be highly appreciated."

"These men want your encouragement, we want you to boost in every way possible (and I know you will). Why? because it means more settlers, more farmers, more wealth to our cities, our banks, our business men, as well as encouragement to all, and lets make this a booster county, and I will boost for you."

Sincerely yours,
W. E. RUNEY.

BARREN BUTTES OF BAD LANDS MAY FEED COWS

Golva Farmer Tries Sweet Clover Experiment With Astonishing Success

Beach, N. D., April 7.—That the great, naked buttes of the Bad Lands of North Dakota may in a few years be covered with sweet clover, offering a fattening pasture for thousands of head of cattle, is well within the realm of possibilities, is the belief of County Agent J. Clayton Russell of Beach.

For the most part, the soil in the Bad Lands is a heavy clay and is highly alkaline, offering an impenetrable surface to many varieties of plants, and little nourishment for the roots of others which may gain a start, but soon succumb. The result is that many of the buttes are entirely bare, while others have a light growth of grass and sage brush. Even in the draws, the growth of grass is often scanty.

Plants Sweet Clover.

One farmer, a little more curious than the rest, planted a half acre of sweet clover last year in the typical "bad land" soil, a part of which extends on his farm, near Golva, 20 miles southeast of Beach in Golden Valley county. Although planted late in the season, the sweet clover attained a height of six inches with a good, thick stand of plants which to all appearances were thriving and healthy. Much interest in the welfare of this planting is being shown by the neighbors, as well as the farmer himself, and all are waiting to see how the field will turn out this year.

This farmer, W. R. McNeil, planted the sweet clover in a draw, but County Agent Russell has made an extensive study of the soil and moisture conditions in the Bad Lands, and he is of the opinion that a trial of the plant in various localities will be worth while, and he is now making arrangements with a number of farmers and ranchers in the Bad Lands

"Even on the tops of the buttes moisture can be found," declares Mr. Russell. "If one scrapes through the thin, hard-baked surface."

"I am convinced that the sweet clover will grow in the draws where there is a more plentiful supply of moisture."

"I am making arrangements now for planting sweet clover in various parts of the county in the Bad Lands, and will give it a thorough try-out, both in the draws and on the buttes. If sweet clover can be grown successfully in the Bad Lands, the possibilities for developing the cattle industry will be almost unlimited."

(Established 1878)

THE RIGHT IDEA

The really men of Bismarck who have formed the Bismarck Immigration Association have the right idea. To promote the growth of any community, everybody must join hands. And that is what the really men have done.

The individual efforts of all the real estate and business men in Bismarck, or in any other community in the Slope country, might go for naught. But the combined energies provide a mighty force, a working organization, and results are sure to follow.

The idea of the real estate dealers is not born of despair, but of opportunity. They know, as does every other citizen who has put himself in touch with the situation, that the only farm lands north of the Mason and Dixon line that have not been traded in at inflated values are in central and western North Dakota. They know that right now thousands of small farmers and renters in Iowa, Illinois and other states where land values have risen to prices beyond the reach of the average man, are looking for new homes. North Dakota has what they want—fertile acres, accessible markets at reasonable prices.

Business men of the city are invited to discuss the situation at an Open Forum dinner Friday evening. They ought to do so.

Labor, it appears, is far ahead of H. C. L. in the downhill price derby.

EUROPE FERMENTS

Behold Europe, cleaning and oiling its guns again. Clans rally. A former emperor, tricky politician, takes a desperate chance at regaining his throne in Hungary, possibly also in Austria.

Germany, defeated, defies her conquerors. It's a poker bluff. England, fearing an explosion among her miners, declares "a state of emergency." France, with an alarming financial outlook, holds consultation with the money doctors.

All this is mostly thunder and black clouds. In a few parts of Europe it may be wise to seek the cyclone cellar. But the outlook is not as dangerous as many think. Time will carry away the storms. Sunshine follows every tornado.

What is going on in Europe is the inevitable aftermath of all great wars. Always they are followed by uncertainty, emergencies, sudden alarms and garbage-can intrigue.

The south will recall its carpet-baggers and Ku Klux Klan. Europe's condition is no graver than was the south's after the Civil War. And the south came back. So will Europe.

Control of the world situation has passed out of the hands of Washington and other political centers. Wall Street, in New York and Lombard Street in London hold the reins. The world's most critical problems are puzzles in economics—in money—and international bankers are the specialists. They expect to find some way out.

The world is not going to pot. It's merely taking bitter calomel. It may be months, it may be several years, but the outcome will be convalescence, then health.

Livestock men have learned that there's most dough in best bred cattle.

IT'S AN ILL WIND THAT—

England has another coal strike on her hands. To attempt to curb it, the British government declares a "state of emergency."

Back of the British miners is their determination to force nationalization of the mines. All else is a smoke screen.

British miners demand continuance of their present wage scale, made possible only by subsidy under the government control of the mines, which ended April 1. They also demand that the mine owners lower their prices. The operators say they can't lower prices without cutting wages. This trouble has been brewing for several years.

Coal is England's very backbone. Her output last year was 228,000,000 tons. This kept her independent of other fuel-supplying countries. Also it gave her a big coal export trade, more than 2,000,000 tons a month, and control of much of the world's ocean bunkering—supplying ships with coal in far ports.

But now American coal is being delivered in London at lower prices than coal from the Welsh mines. We undersell British coal all over the world.

Regardless of the outcome of the British coal situation, the American coal trade will benefit—if operators and miners cooperate to increase production and exploit our export opportunities. If the British mines close down for any length of time, it'll stimulate our coal exports. That would start up many American mines now idle.

The American miner digs an average of 1134 tons of coal a year.

The British miner produces only 814 tons a year.

Give the American miner steady work and he'll lick the world.

But—If our coal exports suddenly boom, the government in Washington should keep a close eye and be prepared to take any necessary measures to protect the American people against sudden kiting of domestic coal prices, for which export demand might be the alibi.

IT'S MOSTLY OUR OWN FAULT

In cussing or discussing the American form of government, it's easy for you to find the imperfections. They stand out like broken window-panes.

Now comes Viscount James Bryce and shakes his cane at the broken glass. He's an Englishman, but a world authority on how we rule ourselves in the United States.

Bryce finds a lot of thing wrong with us. Boiled down, these are his observations:

Americans are ruled by a mediocre class of men. We pay our judges, legislators and executives such low salaries that we don't get the best.

Short terms of office and a constant desire to be reelected produce a jumble of officialdom—negligent, lazy, sometimes indifferent, frequently the tools of political machines or special interests.

Democracy is a fine machine—but not an automatic machine.

The faults of democracy are largely due to its inability to cure its ills automatically, as part of its functioning.

We expect our democracy to work like an automatic machine mixing concrete or turning out tanks. We start the machine (elect public officials), then most of us go about our business and expect the machine to grind on at top speed without further attention.

Even a mechanic just learning his trade will tell you that every piece of machinery has to be watched constantly, oiled and operated by a competent person.

Even the best machine functions imperfectly if operated by an ignoramus or anyone not an expert.

Ours is the best government machine in the world.

It cannot function perfectly unless "the best men in the shop" run it. We need more engineers in public life.

Furthermore, the machine must be watched constantly. In this, everyone is responsible. Our elected public officials are especially responsible, but they are human beings, not miracle men, and must have constant help—occasionally a prod—coming from you personally.

Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty—and of good American government.

The fault is not in our machine of government but in the way we neglect that machine.

The real history of the World War is written in national debts.

A low rate ton of freight in the hand is worth two high-rate tons in the bush.

All people may not want a tariff, but all people want it settled right away quick.

The modern Horace Greeley advises, "Young man, come west and catch up with the country."

Airplane flight to 14,000-foot altitude restored speech to a mute. It'd make most of us lose our voices.

EDITORIAL REVIEW

Comments reproduced in this column may or may not express the opinion of the Tribune. They are presented here in order that our readers may have both sides of important issues which are being discussed in the press of the day.

NEW NOTE IN BUSINESS

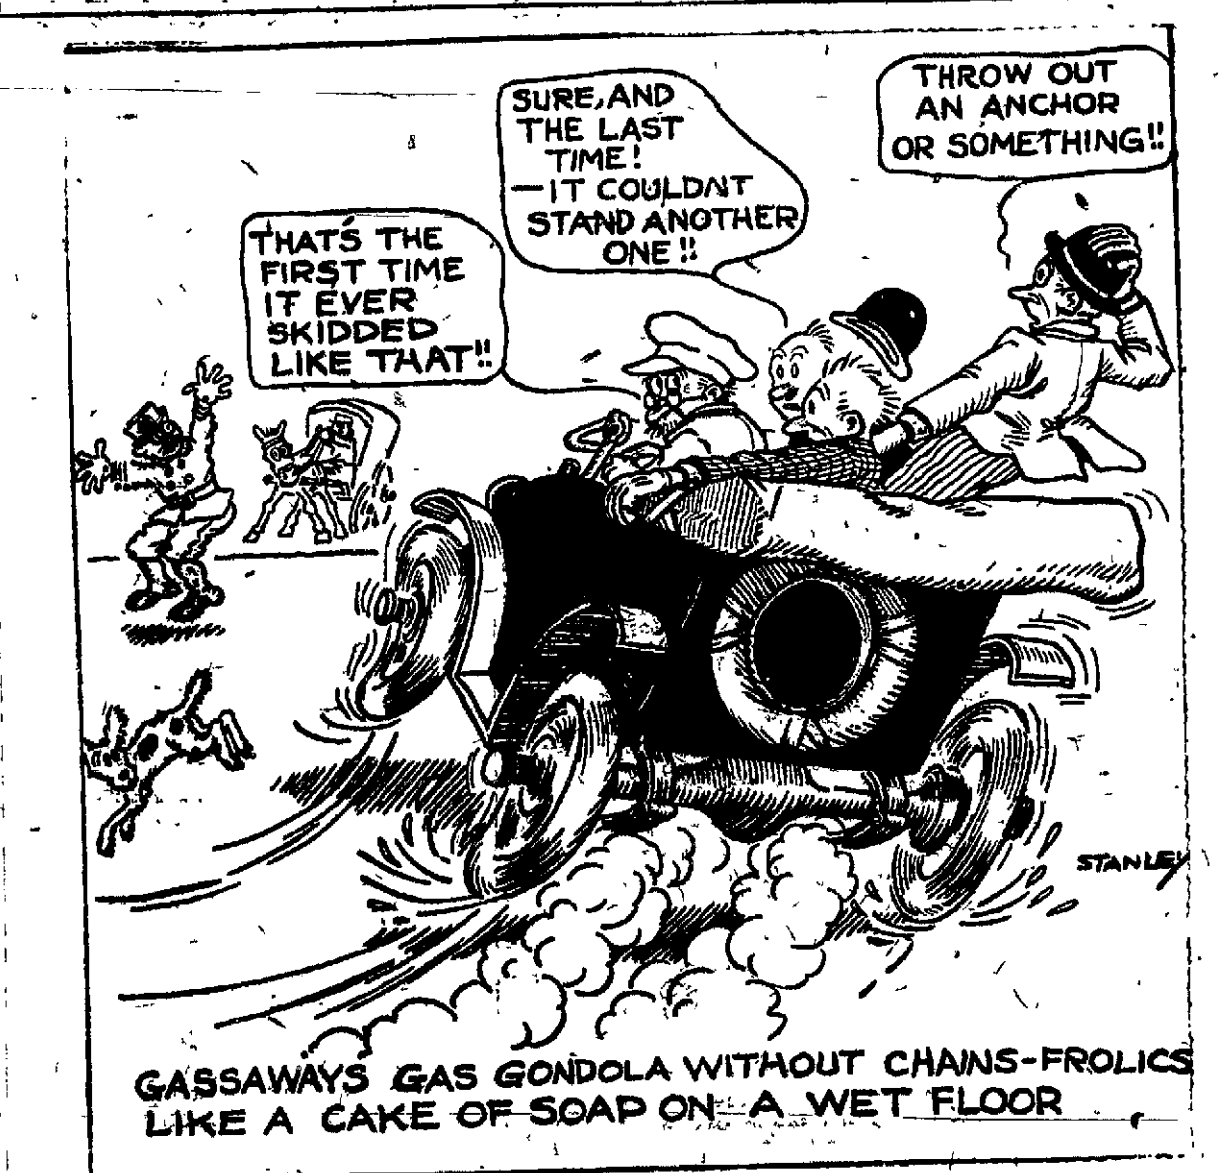

A new and distinctive note is being sounded in national advertising. An example of this is the B. F. Goodrich company's announcement in The Tribune today, the psychological influence of which is to adjust the mind of the business world to the evolution of the season's; to inspire such ambition and energy as spring suggests and to imbue all business agencies and elements with the new throb of life which nature herself feels with the coming of vernal spring.

These things are inspiring. It is well that this nation has developed such business men and institutions. This is a singularly fine thing in American business life and the message of the Goodrich company to business in general is such as will prompt new confidence, send men to conquer new empires and give an impetus to the business world generally, the convalescence of which in some quarters has not approximated public desire.

Ocular demonstration of a thing is the surest method of conveying conviction. The Goodrich advertisement makes manifest the dawn of an era of good business and the influence of this message on all who read it will be wholesome and reassuring. If other large business organizations would engage in such public effort, if they would exert their powerful influence towards stimulating better conditions, American business would surmount every obstacle. No recent public service has been more needed, nor more effectively applied. Terra Haute Tribune.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

By Olive Barton Roberts

Mrs. Silky Seal said to Mr. Silky Seal: "Oh pshaw!" Then she yawned.

"Why?" said Mr. Silky Seal to his wife.

"Because!"

"Humph!" said Mr. Silky Seal. Mrs. Seal got mad. Then she got mad, and real tears trickled down her cheeks. "You're the most understanding person I ever saw," she said. "You don't care a bit whether I'm lonesome or not."

Mr. Seal felt sorry and a little bit ashamed. "Are you lonely, my love?" he asked. "What should you like to do?"

"I hardly know myself," answered Mrs. Seal, brightening. "But I get tired of diving and catching fish, and swallowing stones and running races. Won't you tell me a story about the circus you used to be in?"

Mr. Seal said "Ahem," or barked it, rather. Then he put down his newspaper and crossed his fingers, before he answered for he expected Mrs. Seal to say exactly what she did and he was uneasy.

When the gnomes had let all the circus animals out and he had paddled home alone the ocean as fast as his flippers could push him, he had let it out to some of his friends that circuses were wonderful places, with music and people and light and real thrills. He had even boasted that he had learned to beat a drum, balance a ball upon his nose or even a stick or a lighted torch; and do all sorts of tricks.

But when he decided to marry and settle down he kept the whole thing from his wife. He knew she'd want to go if she knew too much. He said "Ahem," a third time trying to think of some avenue. (To Be Continued) (Copyright 1921 N. E. A.)

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights. Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that, which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating. No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with a "dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face. Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you know them by their olive color. Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week. Rail Business Starts Up Grade

By Albert Apple. Railroad freight traffic, which reflects general business conditions, has touched bottom and will not fall off further, says Thomas DeWitt Cuyler, chairman of the Association of Railroad Executives. Freight movement has improved decidedly in the last two weeks, he says. New York Central's office forces have gone on full time. Number of cars loaded with freight in week ended March 12, latest reported, was 702,068. This was seventh less than a year ago, but larger than same week, 1919.

Detroit reports 33,000 more employed than on Jan. 1. Gradual improvement continues throughout automobile industry, with Standard running 71 per cent, nearest capacity. Revived auto sales are stimulating rubber industry.

Stock the thermometer. Structural steel buying is now the heaviest in months. Mena building activity. Steel industry as whole is at 28 per cent capacity. U. S. Steel Corporation last week operated 43 per cent. Trade belief in that Judge Gary wants to make good showing until end of present quarter, then will cut prices early in April. May be false alarm, but steel stagnation is largely due to high prices. U. S. Steel's new orders averaging enough to keep it going on one-third time.

Pig iron has fallen to $23 a ton basic. Pre-war was $10.25, highest in wartime was $42.

Weather Notes. Bank clearings in week ended March 26 were 29 per cent less than a year ago, country over. Chicago and San Francisco made best showing. New Orleans and Kansas City the worst. Chicago clearings cause cheer, that district having been hardest hit.

Depression is worst in ocean shipping. About 1,700 ships idle. Wheat exports last week 4,654,566 bushels, against 11,110,262 bushels same week 1919. Corn exports 2,988,818 bushels, against 1,998,711 bushels same week 1919. Mow wheat during last week touched lowest price since 1916.

MRS. HAYDOCK SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

Followed Advice of Her Druggist's Wife and Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Chicago, Ill.—"I was in bed with a female trouble and inflammation and had four doctors but none of them did me any good. They all said I would have to have an operation. A druggist's wife told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took 23 bottles, never missing a dose and at the end of that time I was perfectly well. I have never had occasion to take it again as I have been so well. I have a six room flat and do all my work. My two sisters are taking the Compound upon my recommendation and you may wish to write to any one who wants a personal letter." Mrs. E. H. HAYDOCK, 6824 St. Lawrence Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. Because Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved Mrs. Haydock from an operation we cannot claim that all operations may be avoided by it—but many women have escaped operations by the timely use of this old fashioned root and herb medicine.

(By Rev. C. E. Finwall.)

During the first week of May, 1920, members and friends of the local First Baptist church, pledged about $7,500 for world missions and world moral reconstruction to sustain educational, medical and spiritual endeavors, at home and abroad, among American born, foreign born Negroes, Indians, Mexicans, on American soil, and for relief and for fundamental reconstruction, in many European countries, as well as in Africa, China, and India and other sections of our globe. The $7,500 pledged by people of Bismarck is a part of the $200,000 asked of North Dakota by the North-east Baptist convention and pledged by North Dakotans last year to be carefully managed by the Board of Promotion, Doctor John Y. Aftablon, General Director, 276 Fifth avenue, New York City. The $200,000 pledged by the people of North Dakota for world relief and world reconstruction is part of the hundred million dollars asked for by the board of promotion, from the Baptists and their friends in the northern sections of the U. S. A.

Mr. H. Finwall was local director in the Baptist drive last year. With him worked the following: Rev. and Mrs. Newcomb, Mr. C. Staley and E. J. Gobel, Mrs. J. Hillmer, Mrs. A. W. Carlson, Mrs. B. F. Flanagan and Mrs. R. Mobley, Rev. and Mrs. Finwall and other, and the result was about $7,500 as Bismarck's contribution. Of this amount $1,875 is due this month. Bismarck is credited up to now as having paid cash just about $1,800, about $400 more would be paid immediately to bring Bismarck up to 100 per cent as having done to date, what has been promised to date. The writer is charged by Superintendent, F. E. Skogston to assist Mr. O. Hare as director and W. E. Parsons as treasurer to bring Bismarck into the 100 per cent rank in this matter. I am taking this method through the Tribune, to thank all who have sent in their payments to Mr. Parsons, and gently urge those who have failed or have forgotten to do so this week.

Gift for Community Church.
 The Community church, corner of Sweet and Eighth streets have had as a gift from the First Baptist church, a supply of new hymn book which will be used for the first time at a special service held in the church next Sunday afternoon at 3:30. Dr. J. F. Jordan of the first Baptist church will deliver the sermon. Citizens of Bismarck will be welcomed by the congregation, which is the only church group of colored residents in the city.

Preparation for Mothers' Day.
 A Mothers' Day program is being perfected at the First Baptist church to be carried out on May 8th. In the morning Doctor Jordan's sermon and the music rendered will be in honor of "Our Mothers," and especially in the interest of Mothers living in our midst. In the evening the youth and others will hear a sermon aiming to have the young people appreciate the Mothers and their influence for good. Appropriate music will be rendered by the young people's choir.

Cecil Burton Recovering.
 Mrs. Mary Burton is in receipt of a telegram this afternoon reporting that her son Cecil Burton is reported out of danger. Cecil is suffering from blood poison in his right hand and has been in the hospital in a dangerous condition for the past ten days in the New York town in which he now makes his home. His physician states that his right hand will be seriously impaired by the attack, and that he will have to remain in the hospital for an extended time but hopes for his recovery are now well established.

DR. E. P. QUAIN IN TRAVEL TALK

The scouts and nurses of Bismarck are to hear Dr. Eric P. Quain in his illustrated travel talk in the First Baptist church on Fourth street Friday evening at 8 o'clock. The center of the church auditorium is to be reserved for the scouts and nurses, and any remaining space will be given to any adult persons who may be interested in the doctor's travels in foreign lands, particularly in France. There will be no charge, but because of lack of space small children cannot be accommodated at this time.

PROMINENT MEN ADDRESS CLUB

The Society of Friends of Our Native Wild Life, which is Bismarck's Nature club, will hold the regular meeting in the Community room of the city library this evening at eight o'clock. Mr. J. P. Jackson will discuss "Some North Dakota Birds," and George F. Will has as his topic "Acting and Possibilities in Culture of Some of Our Native Plants." All members are urged to be present, and to bring friends.

THURSDAY CLUB AFTERNOON TEA

Guest day for the Thursday Musical Club was held in the Community room of the city library this afternoon. Guests called between the hours of three and six. The room was decorated in the club colors, purple and silver, the windows being effective in drapings of the colors and banked with potted plants. The tea table with its pretty floral decorations was presided over by the president of the club, Mrs. John A. Larson.

The committee in charge were Mrs. E. H. L. Vesperman, Mrs. W. L. Smith, Mrs. John Graham, Mrs. Richard Tracy, and Mrs. C. W. McGary. Many ladies called during the social hours to have tea and listen to the musical program.

ISABELLA DANCE.

A dancing party will be given Monday night, April 11, at the K. of P. hall by Division B of the Daughters of Isabella, after the regular meeting. Members of the Daughters of Isabella, Knights of Columbus and their friends are invited. Dancing will begin at 9:30 o'clock.

TELEPHONE OPERATOR WEDS.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the Methodist church last evening at 7 o'clock when Miss Lillian Stebbins, whose home is at 523 Sixth street, became the bride of George Gillette, Jr. The service was read by Rev. G. H. Quigley and the attendants were Dorothy and Henry Stebbins, sister and brother of the bride.

The groom is an employee of the Bismarck Grocery Company and the bride has been one of the efficient and obliging operators at the telephone exchange. The young couple will make their home at 102 Avenue B.

Thel many friends in Bismarck wish for them every success.

AT THE MOVIES

In presenting "The Man Who Had Everything," the Orpheum theater will give to its patrons an opportunity to view one of the Goldwyn Studios, in addition to its being one of the best screen versions of an up to date story with a punch in it.

Jack Pickford is the star, and he is supported by an excellent cast. As Harry Bullway, son of a multi-millionaire, he runs riot with his father's fortune, and lays at the feet of Lenore Pennell, the baby vamp, gifts of fabulous price. For this reason the scenes of this picture were built to convey the impression of great wealth, and Al Green, director of "The Man Who Had Everything," never lets the audience lose sight of the fact that he DID have everything.

To carry out this idea the property rooms of the Goldwyn studios were made to yield up their most precious treasures. The paintings hanging on the walls of the Bullway mansion are genuine antiques costing into the thousands of dollars. Lenore's apartments, if put on the auction block, would bring something over $25,000. Tonight only, don't miss it.

SCHOOL OPENING

The teachers and pupils of the Richhold school will receive the public Friday evening, April 8th, at the building. All parents of the city invited. Because of the limited space, pupils of other buildings can not be admitted, it being expected that visiting adults of the city with the Richhold pupils and parents are all that can be accommodated.

A very interesting program has been prepared including physical training drills and a live basket ball game in the "gym." J. M. MARTIN, City Supv.

Scene from Allen Holubar's Production "Man-Woman-Marriage" Starring Dorothy Phillips

This picture which will be the special attraction at the Eltinge Theatre commencing next Monday, is considered the biggest production of 1921. It is an interesting fact that over 12,500 people are in the cast of this gigantic undertaking.

My Mother used
MOTHER'S FRIEND
 before I was born

26 years ago and my birth was practically a painless one," writes one enthusiastic mother. How very natural then, that her own mother, whose experience had unqualifiedly proven the virtue of Mother's Friend would have her daughter enjoy the same benefits. Mother's Friend is used externally.

Business Is Good

The American People want to patronize a success. We are pleased to say that Our Real Estate business in Bismarck and Burleigh County has been a success. For which we thank you.

Warning: We wish to warn prospective buyers of homes that the number of homes "for sale" at present is very limited and you should buy early.

I was going to say that I have several very nice homes that I can sell on small cash payment and the balance on terms to suit.
